

THE RAISIN TRUST SHAKY.

ITS COLLAPSE PREDICTED BY A LEADING MEMBER OF THE FRUIT TRADE.

PRESENT STATUS OF THE COMBINATION—COMMITTEE ON THE CALIFORNIA AND THE SPANISH PRODUCTS—FUTURE.

The Raisin Trust just now is causing much conjecture among California growers, shippers and receivers. There are differences of opinion on the subject between important firms, but a Tribune reporter who talked with the senior member of the trust received the following information:

"We saw in a California dispatch to The Tribune," said he, "the statement that 75 per cent of the required 80 per cent of the total product to form the trust had been subscribed, but we had previously supposed that the trust was an accomplished fact, and we still so believe it to be, but we believe that in the end so-called trust or combination will collapse."

"The commission merchants in opposition to shipments actually purchased at the point of production, and to secure a uniform grading of raisins, the principal growers of the San Joaquin Valley of California, after many conferences, formed a combination, or trust, and agreed that prices for the current season should be as follows:

"Dried grapes, 2 cents; three-crown, 3 cents; four-crown, 4 cents; seedless muscades, 5 cents; four-crown London raisins, $1.50 a box of 20 pounds; clusters, $1.00; Dehesa clusters, $2.00; Imperial clusters, $3.00; four-crown muscades, $1.15; four-crown loose muscades, faced, $1.25; seedless Sultanais, 1 cent a pound."

"These prices are guaranteed against any price named by the following packers: Hartford Raisin Company, Producers Raisin Company, Noble Brothers, Cooperative Raisin Company, Fresno Fruit and Raisin Company, Butler & Forsyth, Chadcock & Hoyt, Griffin and Skelley, Williams Brown Fruit Company, and Porter Brothers Fruit Company, which embrace all the principal raisin packers in California."

"There will be no difference in the prices of goods packed either in boxes or sacks, as it seems to be the general wish that most of the goods be put in boxes on account of their arriving East in such much better condition, though if any of the trade wish sacks they will be shipped in that way. The clusters are really a four-crown London variety, according to last year's standard, but as there has been a call for clusters they will still be packed in that style."

"The prospects were never better for goods of exceptionally good quality, and we believe they will be ready for shipment earlier than usual. Present indications are that a large quantity can be shipped during the first half of September, if the weather in the drying districts continues to be favorable."

"The shipments of raisins from the Pacific Slope during the season of 1893-94 are estimated to have been a little more than 1,750,000 pounds, the carloads averaging about 21,000 pounds each. The greater portion of the shipments was in boxes of an average of 50 pounds each. The market opened at about 4 cents a pound for four-crown loose, but soon broke to 4 1/2 cents. The most of the crop was marketed at from 3 1/2 to 4 cents for three-crown, and 4 to 4 1/2 cents for four-crown in 50-pound boxes, or at 3 1/2 to 4 cents less in boxes of about 80 pounds each."

"The shipments in bags did not meet general favor, as the fruit was never received in poor condition. The most desirable packages proved to be those of 50 pounds each, and they brought higher prices than the 20-pound boxes, which had previously been the favorite packages in size."

"This year's crop, it is estimated, after a careful consideration by our most experienced and competent experts, will be larger in volume and better quality than last year's. On this basis, the combination or so-called 'trust' will not be able to keep up their prices, but aside from this they will have to encounter the competition of the market."

"California puts up raisins both in layers and clusters. The quality of raisins from the Pacific Slope has steadily improved, and the quality of the grades of Malaga raisins from the American market, but for the best table raisins we still depend upon the supply from Spain."

"The reduced rate, however, the California raisin producers still believe that in a few years the American raisin will become such a quality in quantity and quality to that of any other country. Meanwhile, however, we believe that every tub must stand on its own bottom, and that the 'trust' or 'combinations' must inevitably collapse."

A FRENCH CHURCH ANXIOUS TO MOVE.

THE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CONGREGATION WANTS TO GO TO A QUIETER NEIGHBORHOOD.

There are two churches for French Catholics in this city. One of these, the oldest, is that of St. Vincent de Paul, in West Twenty-third-st., and the other that of St. Jean Baptiste, in East Seventy-sixth-st. The Church of St. Vincent de Paul has been almost a landmark in Twenty-third-st. for many years, and in view of the invasion of big shops, warehouses and stores a movement has been made by some of the trustees to have the church moved away to a quieter neighborhood, and Archbishop Corrigan and his council have had it under advisement for a long time.

St. Vincent de Paul is one of the oldest among the Catholic congregations in New-York, and may be said to have really started into life in 1841, when a French bishop, during a mission in St. Peter's Church, in Barclay-st., subscribed $50 toward a fund for building a French church. Not long after this a church was built in Canal-st., at a cost of over $100,000, and there the French colony worshipped for a good while. The fortunes of the church, however, were not so good, and in 1877, when Archbishop McCloskey dedicated its new and larger church, the old one was sold and the French-speaking people who dwell in that neighborhood moved to the new church.

"Nothing further can be done in the matter for the present, in view of the decision of the Archbishop."

CLOSING OF THE MIDSUMMER SCHOOLS.

The closing exercises of the Delancey-st. branch of the Midsommer Day School were held yesterday between 9 and 12 o'clock. An excursion to Coney Island will be made to-day. The closing exercises of the Thirty-seventh-st. and Fifty-eighth-st. branches began yesterday and will continue to-day, and an excursion for the children will also be made to Coney Island on Wednesday.

This excellent charity is under the care of the New-York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, and is operated through its Schools and Institutions Department. It provides for a week's midsommer vacation for the children of the poor, who otherwise would spend their time in the streets while the public schools are closed. It now has headquarters in the United Charities Building, 7 Fulton Cutting is president and W. Van Nostrand is secretary. The work of the association is divided into six departments: Finance, temporary relief, dwellings, food supply, schools and institutions and beggars.
